Durban is the busiest port in South Africa. It is a popular tourist destination due to its warm subtropical climate and extensive beaches. The waters of the Indian Ocean are temperate and swimming is possible all year round. Situated on the east coast of South Africa, the tourist attractions in Durban and surrounds are multitude and very unique. The city is one of the most diverse in Africa with a cultural richness of mixed beliefs and traditions. Zulus form the largest single ethnic group and Durban has the most Indians of any city outside of India, bringing with them a variety of cuisine, culture and religion.

The conference venue is situated on the Golden Mile, a popular stretch of beachfront, including the promenade that runs along with it, that runs from uShaka Marine World to the the iconic Moses Mabhida Stadium, built for the Soccer World Cup held in 2010. The city is also a gateway to national game parks and historic sites of the Zulu Kingdom, the City Hall, the Botanical Gardens and the Drakensberg, a spectacular mountain range.
